7th June, 1922.

Hon. Chas. E. Vasaly,
Superintendent,
State Reformatory,
St. Cloud.

Dear Sir:

Replying to your letter of June 5th in re the Hammerberg case our recollection is that Mr. Ruegger took a note to the effect that you were to write to Rev. Carl J. Silverstein, Pastor, Bethel Lutheran Church, Cor. 53rd Ave. W. and Ramsey St., Duluth, Minn, in regard to employment for Hammerberg.

This gentleman was so interested in getting Hammerberg paroled, that it was thought he probably would help in the matter of employment as he stated in his letter that there was now more and more work opening up in Duluth.

Yours very truly,

Ella S. Huggins
Secretary to the Chairman.
