Dear Sir:

I have yours of the 23rd ult., in regard to Carl Hammerberg, #5148.

I shall be glad to bring the matter of his discharge to the attention of the Board at its meeting this month. The general rule is a man must be on parole at least one year, unless there are very special reasons to the contrary. I am glad to know Carl has been doing so well. There is no occasion to send in any application for discharge, so I shall bring the matter to the Board's attention myself.

Very truly yours,

cev-k

Superintendent.
